Hilltoppers To Meet Strong W. & L. Team

Georgetown Football Team Plays in Richmond Today. Villanova at Catholic University—Other Gridiron Gossip and Comment.

Football has nearly reached the mid-season stage. All three local colleges will be busy this afternoon. Georgetown going to Richmond to tackle the strong Washington and Lee team, Villanova playing Catholic University, at Brookland, and Gallaudet stacking up against V. M. I. in Lexington, Va.

The outcome of the Georgetown-Washington and Lee game is problematical. For the reason that no definite line has been obtained on the strength of the Virginia. They are reported to be fast and strong, also well coached, consequently the Hilltoppers have their work cut out for them.

Catholic University meets a husky, strong team in Villanova, which can be depended upon to put up a stubborn defense, while the same goes for V. M. I. against Gallaudet.

A goodly number of undergraduates will accompany the Georgetown squad to Richmond, and as the Virginia State capital harbors a big alumni representation, the Hilltoppers should not lack for encouragement and support.

Twenty-six players boarded the 7:30 express for Richmond this morning accompanied by the coaches, Manager O'Boyle and Assistant Manager Butler.

Catholic University went through a hard practice yesterday in preparation for the game with Villanova this afternoon. Coach Madden is going to send the strongest team possible against the Pennsylvanians. Much attention has been paid to the offense and punting, as Catholic University has been weak in this department hitherto. Rogers, the new man, seems to be the goods. His punting borders on the sensational. Rogers has been in school since it opened, but has been studying hard, and it was only through great efforts that the coach got him to do a uniform.

The same line will start this afternoon that played against St. John's last Saturday, except Killion, who will play today in place of Kelly.

As this is the only game in Washington today a big crowd is expected to go to Brookland. The team that will most likely start is Lynch, left end; Waters, left tackle; Boyle, left guard; Murphy, center; Ostronoff, right guard; Killion, right tackle; Alvarn, right end; Dougherty, quarter back; Rogers, right half back; McCue, left half back; Huntcliff, full back; referee, Mr. Bryan Morse; umpire, Mr. White, Georgetown; head linesman, Mr. Dugan, Gonzaga. Game called at 2 o'clock.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 16.—The game with the U. of P. in the eyes of the Midshipmen, has taken the place of the Army-Navy contest as the most important of the year and practically the entire student body was on hand today to give the team a send-off. The game in Philadelphia tomorrow will be the first in which the Navy had participated away from home except when West Point was the opponent.

Final practice took place this afternoon, despite the muddy condition of the field. Players and substitutes to the number of thirty-five were in the squad selected by the coaches to meet the Quakers. The Navy team will start tomorrow with the following line-up: Overesch, left end, captain; Derode, left tackle; Mills, left guard; Perry, center; Hicks, right guard; Kennedy, right tackle; Graft, right end; Mitchell, quarter; Blodgett, left half back; Falling, right half and H. Harrison, full back. The backfield is especially strong, averaging 130 pounds.

Harvard. Cambridge, Oct. 16.—Fear of further crippling the Harvard team by accidents led the coaches to exclude every first string man from the line today. The field was extremely heavy, and the final scrimmage for tomorrow's game against Tufts was delayed with.

Mahan, Logan, and Hardwick were on the track today, and may be in the Tufts game for a short period, but it is admitted that every athlete who has shown ability will be given a tryout to save the veterans as much as possible. Swager will play at quarter and McKinlock will be started at full back.

Yale. New Haven, Oct. 16.—The Notre Dame eleven which will face the Yale tomorrow arrived today in time to get some indoor gym practice in the Yale football cage. Coach Harper said he looked for close game, despite the fact that the muddy field would greatly handicap his boys in their specialty—the forward pass.

Cornell. Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 16.—A close and hard-fought game is expected when Bucknell meets Cornell on the local gridiron tomorrow. The probability of the Pennsylvanians in the forward pass is expected to give Cornell more than a little trouble. The work of the team has improved considerably during the past week, however, and Shuler's advent at half back is expected to add greatly to the defense.

Coach O'Brien was back yesterday. Coach O'Brien was back yesterday. Coach O'Brien was back yesterday.

Lehigh. South Bethlehem, Pa., Oct. 16.—Despite the fact that a cold, raw wind, accompanied by a drizzling rain, except over Taylor Field, Lehigh held a good practice today. Because of the weather when scrimmage work was done on a rainy day it resulted in four men being injured, no heavy scrimmage was attempted. Following a long signal drill, the varsity and scrubs were lined up to practice charging and the new formations.

West Point. West Point, N. Y., Oct. 16.—In the scrimmage work yesterday the Army coaches tried out several substitutions, and indications are that a new player or two will be seen in the line-up when the cadets face Colgate here tomorrow. All the regulars played well, but the new players were not so good. Found fault with the lack of force displayed by the backs when they hit the line, and before the practice was over the men were going in at a terrific speed and power. Even at that, there was no scoring, the scrubs putting up a stonewall defense throughout.

Jafayette. Easton, Pa., Oct. 16.—The Lafayette team is crippled on the line of the game with the Tigers. Both Dick and Jack Diamond will not be able to more than start in the game for a few minutes. Kelly is badly injured, and Jack Jones has not been out for a drill since the Penn game. The substitutes are being driven hard by Coach Crowell, who is a critic to rally the team for the game with the Tigers.

Penn. Plays Columbia. New York, Oct. 16.—With the announcement yesterday that the fall baseball practice at Columbia would close tomorrow, the Pennsylvanians next game would be played with Pennsylvania next season. Three of them will be played at South Field and one at Franklin Field. Graduate Manager Fisher went to Philadelphia to arrange for the dates, which cannot be announced until they receive the faculty approval.

Cornell Re-engages Hunter. Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The Cornell Athletic Association has re-engaged Hunter, who was released as coach of the Cornell soccer, hockey, and lacrosse teams. Hunter is expected to come here at once to take charge of the Cornell teams. Hunter has coached here before, being the man who turned out Cornell's only championship hockey team, back in 1912. He also coached the lacrosse team while he was here last year.

New York University Lands Smith. New York, Oct. 16.—The two-mile champion, today that Harry Smith, the two-mile champion, had entered the New York University School of Education, and was expected to be a great help to the Varsity track team, as a coach as well as a point winner. For several years New York University has been in the distance race, but now it should rank with the best in these events. Smith was the indoor national champion at two miles last spring. Since then he has had a good rest, which, he thinks, will put him in first-class condition. He is training for the two-mile championship, in which he hopes to beat Hennes Kolshmeier.

Seaton Hall Drops Football. South Orange, N. J., Oct. 16.—The faculty of Seaton Hall College announced yesterday that there would be no more football at the institution, as a result of the death of Charles C. Bay, the Fordham Prep student, who died from injuries resulting from a kick received in a game against St. Peter's College shortly after the game of the day.

Officials for Big Football Games. New Haven, Oct. 16.—The list of officials for the Yale-Harvard and Yale-Princeton games, the list of which was announced last night, is as follows:

Yale-Harvard—Referee, Nathan A. Tufts, Brown University; umpire, David Pultz, Brown University; linesman, Fred W. Murphy, Brown University; field judge, Dr. Carl Williams, University of Pennsylvania.

Yale-Princeton—Referee, Tufts; umpire, Carl Marshall, Harvard; linesman, Joseph W. Burleigh, Harvard.

The central board of officials assisted in the selection. For the first time in years, William Langford is given an assignment for one of Yale's big games. Tufts, a newcomer in the game of the Big Four, is the only official who will figure in both matches.

Braves Refund $44,782. Boston, Mass., Oct. 16.—Arrangements have been made by the Boston National baseball club to return $44,782 to holders of tickets for the other world's series games that was not played here. Twenty-five thousand dollars was paid back at Fenway-Park yesterday. Two bottles were in use and two men locked in each. There were 9,000 in seats, 1,700 in box seats, and 4,300 in seats sold.

OUR WORLD'S SERIES HERO.

BILLY MARTIN.

Billy Martin, the Georgetown boy who joined the Boston Braves last August, when the club was down in the race, and who was on the bench during the recent world's series, returned home yesterday morning.

Martin declares that the report circulated to the effect that he was "kissed" over the treatment he had received from the Braves is without foundation, and that, instead of receiving only $50 for his end, he was given a half share. Martin said:

"I was more than pleased with the way Mr. Stallings treated me. I would not have kicked if he had refused to pay me a nickel for my share of the world's series. I was not only given half a share, but, in addition, a check for $500 from Manager Stallings himself."

"I have signed my contract for next year, and will report in Boston for spring training; and hope to make something of a regular job."

Martin has resumed his studies at Georgetown University, and his world's series savings are carefully tucked away in a local bank, showing a wise head on a young pair of shoulders.

TURNER AGAIN WINS FROM JOHN SNADEKI

World's Middle-weight Champion Disposes of Big Pole with the Toe Hold Barred.

Joe Turner, middle-weight champion wrestler of the world, again proved his superiority over John Snadeki, the Polish grappler last night at the Bijou Theater this time with the toe hold barred, winning in straight falls, the first coming in 55 minutes and 30 seconds and the final in 5 minutes. Turner gained his falls on the toe-lock and body and the scissor and half-nelson.

Louis "Bull" Montana, the Italian horse breaker, was also victorious over Jean Massan, the Spanish wrestler and bull thrower, in the other big bout, winning the first fall with a half-nelson and toe hold in 5 minutes. Turner gained his falls on the toe-lock and body and the scissor and half-nelson.

The preliminary match Mike Malo gained two falls over Vincent Pette, who outweighed him by about thirty-five pounds, the falls coming on a scissor and hammerlock and head lock and half-nelson in 9 minutes, 30 seconds and 12 minutes 30 seconds, respectively.

The closing number was won by Earl of Savoy, while the Mycannaes was second and Battery third.

The steeplechase on the program for Saturday should prove an interesting event as the horses are well matched.

The mutuels handled about the same amount of money as they did on Thursday.

James Butler, the New York millionaire, was an interested spectator at the clubhouse today. Mr. Butler will return to New York after the last race on Saturday.

Frederick Dallam, secretary of the Laurel course, is busily engaged getting things in shape for the fair which takes place at Laurel Park the latter part of the month.

MUD HORSES WIN AT LAUREL TRACK

Brian Boru Captures Opening Event of Card from Fair Helen in Easy Style.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.

Laurel, Md., Oct. 16.—Scratches were numerous today, owing to the sloppy condition of the track. Rain poured all night and as a result the track was in poor condition. However, towards nightfall a high wind set in and the course, in all probability, will be in good shape for tomorrow, when the Prince George Handicap, at a mile, will be run. There is considerable class in this event, and, no doubt, a large crowd will be on hand to witness its running.

The card today was a good one, but the scratches took the heat out of the races and as a result the field were small. Brian Boru captured the opening event, winning easily from Fair Helen, who, in turn, increased it. Helen's race went off at one and one-sixteenth miles, was in all probability, will be in good shape for tomorrow, when the Prince George Handicap, at a mile, will be run. There is considerable class in this event, and, no doubt, a large crowd will be on hand to witness its running.

"Wizard" Redwell put over his usual good thing when Laura galloped home in the second race, beating Hypatia by four lengths, who, in turn, beat Phyllis Antoinette half a dozen lengths for third money.

Jim Baesey annexed the third number, beating Parlor Boy by half a length, while Milton Roblee was third. The feature, the fourth, a handicap at one and one-sixteenth miles, was in all probability, will be in good shape for tomorrow, when the Prince George Handicap, at a mile, will be run. There is considerable class in this event, and, no doubt, a large crowd will be on hand to witness its running.

James Butler, the New York millionaire, sent Doublet to the races in the fifth event, and from the way he was played the race looked as though it was all over except to collect the winnings. However, a different story must be told. Protector, owned by J. S. Tyre, the Washington sportsman, got away first and held his position to the finish. Doublet was slow to break, got off in seventh position, and had to run around his field. He made up a lot of ground, but could not catch the winner. With an even break the Butler horse probably would have won.

The closing number was won by Earl of Savoy, while the Mycannaes was second and Battery third.

The steeplechase on the program for Saturday should prove an interesting event as the horses are well matched.

The mutuels handled about the same amount of money as they did on Thursday.

James Butler, the New York millionaire, was an interested spectator at the clubhouse today. Mr. Butler will return to New York after the last race on Saturday.

Frederick Dallam, secretary of the Laurel course, is busily engaged getting things in shape for the fair which takes place at Laurel Park the latter part of the month.

The windstorm of last night blew several trees down near the clubhouse. The course seems to absorb the water readily, and towards the running of the last race the track had dried out considerably, and in all probability will be in good shape tomorrow.

Killikenny Boy, another Butler horse, starts tomorrow. That he will be the public's choice goes without saying, and should win easily.

Doublet's defeat in the fifth race today was no disgrace. He had practically no chance when the barrier was sprung. As he is a slow beginner and the condition of the track bad, he ran a good race under these handicaps. He will probably win the next time out.

The Prince George Handicap to be run today has considerable class to it and a good contest should result therefrom.
